

Mat Hennek

The German photographer Mat Hennek was born in the "Black Forest" area in 1969. While based in Berlin, Hennek strongly influenced the entertainment world and music industry with his highly original portrait photography for over 15 years. His works have appeared in publications worldwide.

Hennek then switched the focus of his work to art photography, dedicating his artistic vision to natural landscapes, following a spiritual path of silence and beauty. His fine art photography has been featured in solo exhibits in galleries, museums and art fairs in Europe, Asia and in the USA.

Mat Hennek lives with his partner, the French pianist H el ene Grimaud, in rural California.